

Create your proposed solution

Consider the analysis and come up with your proposed solution before viewing the sample solution.

To simulate the exam – you can't use pen or paper or a document to record your proposed solution. So you should consider the solution in your head as a way to prepare for answering questions about the case.